

Our festive massage offer

Special massages in the spirit of winter harmony.

Citrus Awakening

The treatment begins with the natural harmony of orange and sugar, gently smoothing the skin and removing the dead skin cells to reveal its freshness. The experience is completed with a slow, relaxing face and neck massage that combines the energizing citrus with a soothing touch. A moment of renewal that rejuvenates both the skin and the soul.

Warming Spice Bliss

The unique blend of orange, cinnamon, and black pepper stimulates circulation while providing both a refreshing and warming effect on the skin and mind. The invigorating scent of orange energizes, while the spicy warmth of cinnamon relaxes the body, and the black pepper lightly stimulates the skin, enhancing the massage's effectiveness. This treatment nourishes the skin and also offers deep relaxation, restoring energy for the challenges of everyday life.

Orange Coconut Indulgence

The combination of bio coconut oil and fresh orange provides a unique indulgence for the skin. The rich, moisturizing properties of coconut oil deeply nourish and soften the skin, while the refreshing scent and natural oils of orange invigorate both the body and senses. The skin becomes silky smooth, and the citrus fragrance refreshes the spirit. It's a truly revitalizing experience that rejuvenates both the skin and the mind.

Earth's Warmth

The lava stone massage harnesses the power of nature to provide deep relaxation and rejuvenation for the body. Smooth, heated stones are placed on various points of the body, allowing the warmth to relax muscles, stimulate circulation, and reduce tension. The treatment promotes energy flow throughout the body, improves skin tone, and aids in achieving deeper relaxation. The combination of touch and heat creates a unique harmony that focuses on restoring both physical and mental balance.

Black Gold Touch

In the poppy seed oil massage, the focus is on the nourishing and regenerative effects of cold-pressed poppy seed oil. Rich in vitamins and antioxidants, the oil deeply hydrates and revitalizes the skin. The soothing massage not only relaxes the body but also calms the mind, while the oil leaves the skin feeling silky smooth and balanced. This treatment brings deep relaxation and enhances the skin's natural radiance.
